Your Revised 2025 Tax Information Statement

We received corrected information from one or more issuers of securities you held during 2025 or identified changes to your account information, requiring us to revise your Tax Information Statement and to forward this information to both you and the IRS. This Revised Tax Information Statement supersedes all previous Tax Information Statements you may have received from us. As a next step, carefully review all of the information in the revised statement. If it is incorrect, promptly contact your financial professional or financial organization. Should new information become available, we will provide revised statements as required.

Preceding the revised statement is a Revision Summary, "Your Revised Tax Summary Statement," which highlights the changes in the revised version. To simplify your recordkeeping, we are providing your entire 2025 Tax Information Statement, not just the revised sections. You should discard any previous 2025 Tax Information Statements you received for this particular account. For more information, see the notation at the end of your Tax Information Statement.

How to Read Your Revised Tax Summary Statement

Your Revised Tax Summary Statement includes sections for Income Reclassifications, Capital Gain Reclassifications, Additions, Deletions and Other Changes. The key column headings found in each section are:

Date— The date on the Revision Summary is the date of the original transaction, not the date of the revision.

Prior Information—The information that was previously reported for a particular transaction appears in this column. This information will no longer appear on your Revised Tax Information Statement.

Revised Information—The revised information for a particular transaction is based on information we received after the initial statement was issued. The revised information is reflected on your Revised Tax Information Statement.

Revision Type—The type of information that was revised appears in this column.

Statement Section—This column indicates the section of your Tax Information Statement that has been revised. Use the Statement Section and the Revision Type to locate the particular transaction on your Revised Tax Information Statement.

Note that the heading in the upper right-hand corner of the first section reads, "Your Revised Tax Summary Statement," which lists the changes and differs from the second section heading, which reads "2025 Your Tax Information Statement, Revised Statement as of [date]." The page numbers (for instance, page 1 of 2) on the Revised Summary Statement refer only to the Revision Summary section. Page numbers begin with page 1 again on your Revised 2025 Tax Information Statement. The dates displayed on the top of the Revision Summary and the Revised Tax Information Statement reflect when changes were made to your statement. All totals in the detail and summary sections will reflect the revisions.

Income Reclassification: The tax status of payments made by real estate investment trusts (REITs) and mutual fund companies can only be determined after the end of the year and may be subject to change after you receive the initial Tax Information Statement. If previously reported dividends are reclassified, the Revised Tax Information Statement reflects these changes. Typically, this type of reclassification involves the following categories: ordinary dividends, capital gain distributions, non-dividend distributions and liquidation distributions.

Capital Gain Reclassification: If you owned shares in a mutual fund or a REIT in 2025 and received capital gain distributions from these investments, we may have provided you with additional information concerning your capital gain distributions. The mutual fund company or the REIT provides this information. If previously reported capital gain distributions are reclassified, the Revised Tax Information Statement reflects these changes. Typically, this type of revision involves the following categories: unrecaptured section 1250 gain, section 1202 gain, collectibles (28%) gain and long-term capital gain distributions.

Additions: This section includes new information not previously reported to you. The Additions section can include the following items: information pertaining to collateralized debt obligations, real estate mortgage investment conduits (REMICs), or distributions paid by mutual fund companies and REITs in January 2026 to account holders of record in October, November or December 2025.

Deletions: In some cases, it is necessary for us to delete information that was previously reported to you. For instance, if interest or dividend payments reported on your original Tax Information Statement were debited from your account, or if a trade was canceled from your account, that information is reflected in the Deletions section of the Revision Summary. Items that have been deleted from the Tax Information Statement are not reported to the IRS, nor are they included in the detail or summary totals.

Other Changes: It may be necessary to update information on your Tax Information Statement to reflect a change to information previously reported. For instance, the withholding rate on a foreign dividend or interest payment may have changed, the amount paid may need to be corrected and one or more details of a transaction may be different from the details previously reported to you.

Cost Basis Information Revisions: Prior and revised information for changes to cost basis information will be displayed in the "Other Changes" section for the following types of adjustments: type of gain or loss (short-term or long-term), covered/noncovered, disposition transaction type, acquisition date, cost or other basis amount, wash sale loss disallowance, return of capital adjustment, option premium, market discount, bond premium and acquisition premium. If cost basis information is adjusted for covered securities transactions, it may result in a Revised Tax Information Statement, since typically the 1099-B form will be updated. If cost basis information is adjusted for noncovered securities transactions, a revised tax statement will only be produced if your firm subscribes to our premium Tax and Year-end Statement.

Additional Reasons Why You May Have Received a Revised Tax Information Statement

A Change Was Made to Your Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)—If this is the case, the following message will appear: "Your Taxpayer Identification Number was updated."

Your Tax Status Changed From Exempt to Nonexempt—You will receive a Tax Information Statement, but you will not receive the Revision Summary.

Your Tax Status Changed From Nonexempt to Exempt—Your Tax Information Statement will be deleted from our records and you will receive the following message: "The Tax Information Statement previously sent to you has been deleted from our reporting records. Consequently, no information will be sent to the IRS for this account."

Cost Basis Change Provided by Your Previous Firm—A revised tax statement has been generated due to changes in cost basis tax reporting information provided by your previous firm.

All Reportable Transactions Were Deleted—The summary total page for reportable income will not appear on your Revised Tax Information Statement and the following message will appear: "You had no income in 2025 that we are required to report to the IRS. The following information is provided as a courtesy to assist you in preparing your tax returns."

Your Account Previously Had No Transactions to Report; However, Transactions Were Added That Now Cause a Statement to Be Produced—You will receive a complete Tax Information Statement, along with the Revision Summary indicating transactions that were added.

IRS Form 1099-B—Proceeds from Broker and Barter Exchange Transactions:

The amounts in this section of your Tax Information Statement reflect proceeds from securities transactions such as sales, redemptions, tender offers, return of principal distributions, covered options and bond maturities. Short-term and long-term transactions are segregated in your 1099-B form in a format comparable to IRS Form 8949 for dispositions of covered and noncovered securities. Since your financial organization subscribes to our premium Tax and Year-End Statement, the date of acquisition, cost or other basis, type of gain or loss (short-term or long-term), and market discount for both covered and noncovered securities transactions will be displayed when available. Such detail for noncovered transactions is not reported to the IRS.

Box 2—Type of Gain or Loss. The section headings within the 1099-B indicate the type of gain or loss for the transactions, short-term or long-term. An asterisk will denote when your security may be subject to special rules. For example, gain on a contingent payment debt instrument subject to the non-contingent bond method generally is treated as ordinary interest income rather than as a capital gain. See the Instructions for Form 8949, Pub. 550, or Pub. 1212 for more details on whether there are any special rules or adjustments that might apply to your security.

Box 12—Covered or Box 5—Noncovered Security. The section headings within the 1099-B indicate whether your security transaction is or is not a covered security under the IRS cost basis reporting program. For tax return reporting purposes, you may need to adjust your cost basis information on IRS Form 8949 and Schedule D of IRS Form 1040. You may also need to consider tax reporting rules that a reporting financial organization is not required to use when preparing your Form 1099-B, such as when reporting wash sales. As a result, you must take into account all applicable tax return reporting rules and be able to verify, from your own records, all cost basis information that is reported on your tax return. The IRS requires you to maintain all such records in case you are asked to produce them. For gifted shares where the original cost is greater than the fair market value, if you elect to include these shares in the average calculation, you must instruct your investment professional in writing to move these shares from fair market value to the average calculation.

Box 1a—Description and Quantity. Shows a brief description of the item or service for which the proceeds are being reported, as well as the number of shares included in the sale or exchange for the lot reported. If fractional shares are part of the disposition, those shares will be displayed to four decimal places.

CUSIP. Broker transactions may show the Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures (CUSIP®) number of the item reported.

Box 3—Qualified Opportunity Fund (QOF). This indicator will be displayed next to the CUSIP if the proceeds are from the disposition of a QOF.

Box 1b—Date Acquired. This box represents the date you acquired the security or, for short sales, the date you opened the short sale. You may see the word VARIOUS displayed in this column if the disposition transaction includes multiple lots with various acquisition dates.

Box 1c—Date Sold or Disposed. Shows the trade date of the sale or exchange. For short sales, the date shown is the date you closed the short sale.

Box 1d—Proceeds. The proceeds amount from transactions involving stocks, bonds, and other debt obligations are reported in Box 1d. These amounts do not reflect net profits and are net of transaction costs. The proceeds amount may also be increased by an option premium received or decreased by an option premium paid. Report the proceeds from each transaction separately on IRS Form 8949 (Sales and Other Dispositions of Capital Assets) and IRS Form 1040, Schedule D (Capital Gains and Losses). This box does not include proceeds from regulated futures or foreign currency forward contracts.

Box 1e—Cost or Other Basis. This box shows the reportable cost basis which may be adjusted for a corporate action, fixed income adjustment, gifted or inherited cost basis, etc. The IRS provides a detailed description of cost or other basis reporting in the Instructions for Form 1099-B, available at irs.gov.

Basis on Bonds. For covered bonds, Pershing reports the adjusted cost basis inclusive of amortization of bond premium, OID, acquisition premium, NQSI and the accretion of market discount depending on taxpayer election. The adjusted cost basis for a noncovered bond is calculated without consideration of your elections and may not be the same method you chose when deciding to amortize or accrete. You or your tax professional should verify the amounts that have been previously calculated to adjust the cost basis of the bond and reported throughout the life of the bond starting with the original purchase price.

Adjustments—The adjustment column may display one or more of codes D, O or W:

Box 1f—D = Accrued Market Discount. An adjustment code (D) will be displayed next to an amount for accrued market discount. A market discount condition exists when the purchase cost of a bond is below the adjusted issue price of an original issue discount bond (OID bond) or below the redemption value of a non-OID bond. For details on market discount, see Schedule D (Form 1040) instructions, Instructions for Form 8949 and Pub. 550.

O = Option Premium (Not Reportable to the IRS). An adjustment code (O) will be displayed next to the amount for an option premium within the Adjustment column. When stock is sold based upon the assignment of either a put or a call option, the proceeds of that sale are adjusted by the price of the option or the option premium.

Box 1g—W = Wash Sale Loss Disallowed. An adjustment code (W) will be displayed next to an amount for a disallowed wash sale loss within the Adjustments column. This loss is reported as disallowed because the sale of the covered security has been adjusted under the broker wash sale rule. This occurs when you re-purchase the identical security, as determined by CUSIP number, in the same account within the 30-day period preceding or following the date of the original loss. The wash sale loss is displayed within Box 1g as a positive amount as required by the IRS. For details on wash sales, see Schedule D (Form 1040) instructions, Instructions for Form 8949 and Pub. 550.

Realized Gain or (Loss). The realized gain or loss for the transaction may be displayed. It is not reported to the IRS.

Sale Date Total. If you sell or dispose of multiple tax lots on the same date, you may see a line item with SALE DATE TOTAL noted. The totals provided in this line item are an aggregate of the lots listed above the total line when the security and sale or disposed dates are the same. For this total, the word VARIOUS will be displayed in the Date of Acquisition column, since the total includes multiple lots with different acquisition dates. These total amounts are included to assist you with the completion of IRS Form(s) 8949.

Income Tax Withholding: If federal or state income taxes were withheld from your proceeds amounts, they will be reported and displayed in this section.

Quantity. This quantity is for reference purposes only and is the total number of shares that may have been split and reported in earlier 1099-B sections.

Proceeds. This amount is for reference purposes only. It represents the total proceeds for a sale or exchange. If a sale or exchange included multiple lots, the proceeds amount is reported at the lot level in the appropriate 1099-B section.

Date Sold or Disposed. This box shows the trade date of the sale or exchange.

Box 4—Federal Income Tax Withheld. Federal income tax withheld is 24% of gross proceeds. See the Additional Information section of these instructions.

Box 14—State. Displays the two-letter postal abbreviation of the state(s) for which state income taxes have been withheld.

Box 15—State ID Number. Displays the payer's state identification number(s).

Box 16—State Tax Withheld. Displays the amount of state income tax(es) withheld.

Foreign Tax Paid. This box shows foreign tax paid. You may be able to claim this tax as a deduction or a credit on your IRS Form 1040. See the Additional Information section of these instructions. This amount is not reported to the IRS.

The IRS requires us to remind taxpayers that you are ultimately responsible for the accuracy of your tax return.

YEAR-END STATEMENT
Revised Statement 02/26/2026IRS Form 1099-INT—Interest Income:

The amounts in this section of your Tax Information Statement reflect interest paid to you during 2025.

Payment Date. The payment date for the interest payments are displayed above the details. A payment amount may be prorated across multiple lots. If there are multiple lots for a payment, a payment total is provided after the details. The payment total will match the interest paid on the noted payment date.

Lot Quantity. This column includes the amount of fixed income or debt instruments purchased in one transaction. If you purchased the same security on different dates, each purchase creates a separate lot along with the corresponding number of bonds.

Acquisition Date/Original Cost Basis. The acquisition date represents the date you acquired the security or, for short sales, the date you opened the short sale. In the absence of cost basis amounts, the acquisition date is the transfer date of the security. The Original Cost Basis represents the amount that you originally paid for the bond or units and has not been adjusted for return of principal, amortization or accretion. Please note: Securities received via transfer may reflect the adjusted basis as of the transfer date in this field.

Period Begin/End Date. The beginning and end date of the accrual period.

Cost Basis at Beginning/End of Period. Amount represents the purchase price adjusted for return of principal distributions, amortization, and accretion at the beginning and end of an accrual period.

Box 1—Interest Income. Interest earned from U.S. corporations, U.S. government agencies, foreign sources and credit interest is included in Box 1.

Box 3—Interest on U.S. Savings Bonds and Treasury Obligations. Interest earned from U.S. savings bonds, Treasury bills, Treasury bonds and Treasury notes. This interest income is exempt from state and local income taxes and is reported in Box 3. This income is not included in Box 1.

Box 5—Investment Expenses. The amount reported in this box represents your share of investment expenses of a single-class real estate mortgage investment conduit (REMIC). Your share of a Unit Investment Trust's (UIT) or a Widely Held Fixed Investment Trust's (WHFIT) expenses is also reported in Box 5. These expenses are included in Box 1. Note: This amount is not deductible.

Box 6—Foreign Tax Paid. This box shows foreign tax paid. You may be able to claim this tax as a deduction or a credit on your IRS Form 1040. See the Additional Information section of these instructions.

Box 10—Market Discount. If you made an election under Section 1278(b) to include market discount in income as it accrues and you notified your payer of the election, this shows the market discount that accrued on the debt instrument during the year while held by you. Report this amount on your income tax return as directed in the instructions for Form 1040. The market discount will be displayed for both covered and noncovered transactions. Market discount amounts will only be reported to the IRS for covered transactions.

Box 11—Bond Premium (Interest Offset). This box shows the current year amount of premium amortization for covered and noncovered securities (other than a U.S. Treasury obligation), unless you notified the payer in writing, in accordance with Regulations section 1.6045-1(n)(5) that you did not want to amortize bond premium under section 171. If an amount is reported in this box, see the instructions for Form 1040 (Schedule B). If an amount is not reported in this box for a security acquired at a premium, the payer has reported a net amount of interest in Boxes 1 or 3, whichever is applicable. If the amount in Box 11 is greater than the amount of interest paid on the covered security, the excess bond premium can be carried forward to the next tax year, see Regulations section 1.171-2(a)(4). Bond premium amounts will be reported to the IRS for covered transactions only.

Box 12—Bond Premium on Treasury Obligations. This shows the current year amount of premium amortization for covered and noncovered U.S. Treasury obligation securities, unless you notified the payer in writing, in accordance with Regulations section 1.6045-1(n)(5) that you did not want to amortize bond premium under section 171. If an amount is reported in this box, see the instructions for Form 1040 (Schedule B) to determine the net amount of interest includible in income on Form 1040 with respect to the U.S. Treasury obligation. If an amount is not reported in this box for a security acquired at a premium and the payer is reporting premium amortization, the payer has reported a net amount of interest in Box 3. If the amount in this box is greater than the amount of interest paid on the U.S. Treasury obligation, see Regulations section 1.171-2(a)(4).

Income Tax Withholding. If federal or state income taxes were withheld from your interest amounts, they will be reported and displayed in this section.

Date. This is the interest payment date.

Interest Income. The amount of interest paid is displayed for reference purposes.

Interest on U.S. Savings Bonds and Treasury Obligations. The amount of interest paid on U.S. savings bonds and Treasury obligations is displayed for reference purposes.

Your former firm should provide you with IRS Form 1099 reporting for prior activity. These instructions have been tailored for use by taxpayers that are U.S. individuals who are investors.

Additional Information:

For your protection, this form shows only the last four digits of your Social Security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN) or employer identification number (EIN). However, Pershing LLC will report your complete identification number to the IRS and, where applicable, to state or local governments.

If you would like to receive eDelivery, and go paper free, please contact your advisor or financial organization for more information.

Nominee Recipients. If your truncated Social Security number or Employer Identification Number is shown on your Tax Information Statement, and the statement includes amounts belonging to another person, you are considered a nominee recipient. Generally, you must file IRS Form 1099 for each of the other owners, showing the income allocable to each. File the applicable IRS Form 1099, along with IRS Form 1096 (Annual Summary and Transmittal of U.S. Information Returns), with the IRS center in your area. See IRS Form W-9 for information on backup withholding and how to furnish your Taxpayer Identification Number.

State and Local Tax Reporting. We are required to provide information to a number of state and local jurisdictions. We report information to California, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New York and Rhode Island concerning municipal bond interest income earned by state residents from bonds not issued by these states. We report certain 1099 information directly to Delaware, District of Columbia, Maine, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Montana, Oregon and Rhode Island. For 2025, we withheld, remitted and reported state income tax for California, Maine and Vermont according to the requirements of those states. We also provided tax information to Puerto Rico as required by the Puerto Rico taxing authority. Check with your tax professional for your specific state and local tax reporting requirements.

Cost Basis Adjustments. There are times when your cost basis reported from a broker will not match your calculations for reporting purposes. IRS Form 8949 allows you and the IRS to reconcile amounts that were reported to you and the IRS on IRS Form 1099-B with the amounts you report on your return.

Important Note Concerning Cost Basis. Your original cost basis for each security affects much of the reporting in this document. You should pay special attention to the basis of any item where we received the basis from you or a third party. If the original basis shown in this tax document is not correct, then the results of our calculations will likewise produce incorrect results. The IRS requires us to remind you that the taxpayer is ultimately responsible for the accuracy of your tax return.

Form 2439. If you held shares in a mutual fund or REIT that paid tax on undistributed long-term capital gains, we will issue IRS Form 2439 (Notice to Shareholder of Undistributed Long-Term Capital Gains) to you. This information is provided after the close of the mutual fund's or the REIT's tax year and will be sent to you shortly after the information becomes available.

Foreign Tax Paid. Your Tax Information Statement may include foreign tax paid (withheld) from foreign source dividends and interest credited to your account during 2025. This information allows you to calculate and claim a foreign tax credit or deduction on your tax return, if you are eligible to do so. A foreign tax credit can be claimed either on IRS Form 1116 (Foreign Tax Credit) or, in some circumstances, by reporting it directly on IRS Form 1040, Schedule A (Itemized Deductions). See instructions for both IRS Form 1116 and IRS Form 1040 for additional information on foreign tax credits and deductions. Foreign tax paid is reported in the Form 1099-DIV sections of your Tax Information Statement. A foreign tax credit may be claimed only if the tax was legally owed and not eligible for a refund.

IRS Publications. IRS publications are available through your local IRS office, by calling the IRS Forms Distribution Center at (800) TAX-FORM or visiting the IRS website at irs.gov. For instance, IRS Publication 550 and IRS Publication 1212 provide useful tax information related to reporting securities transactions.
